8. [redacted] Delivered to William Sullivan, in the office of Representative Glenard P. Lipscomb, a recent Pravda article on the "military-industrial complex" theme. Sullivan advised that the various materials provided on this subject did not cover the earlier pronouncement believed to have been made in the Moscow press probably in November or December 1968. I advised Sullivan I would relay his request and be back in touch with him.

[redacted] Hand carried to William Woodruff, on the staff of the Senate Appropriations Committee, "fact sheets" and photographs on the Harke and Homer Soviet helicopters in response to his earlier request. Woodruff asked if I knew the status of the Army's assessment of the Harke and I responded by indicating that we did not keep up with this on a day-to-day basis but it was my understanding that a substantial assessment had been made by the Army's Foreign Science and Technology Center and a report prepared on the basis of this which was probably available through Army channels.

Talked with Woodruff about arranging for him and Robert Michaels, on the staff of the House Appropriations Committee, to visit the Agency to view the Soviet film, "True Sons of the People" and to receive a briefing on a special project. This has been set for Thursday at 9:00 a.m.

I briefed Woodruff on the following items:

- a. Soviet naval exercises in the Mediterranean.
- b. Soviet satellite reconnaissance.
- c. Soviet propaganda attacks on Yugoslavia and Romania.
- d. Strategic arms talks.
- e. Recent developments in Soviet attitude toward China.
- f. North Korean exploitation of U.S. aircraft shoot-down.
- g. "Realists" in new Czechoslovakian Government.
- h. Soviet leadership difficulties.
- i. Soviet SS-9 tests.

[redacted] Hand carried to George Murphy, on the staff of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, the latest [redacted] dated 11 April 1969.

Talked further with George Murphy regarding recent Soviet tests of the SS-9 in connection with his query regarding Secretary Laird's statement "that the Soviets have tested in the last two weeks a very new and sophisticated ABM weapons system."

Murphy expressed continuing interest in statements being made by Arms Control and Disarmament Agency (ACDA) officials regarding our national verification capability with respect to undeclared facilities. He said he understood that ACDA had recently finished a study on this subject.

1. [redacted] George Murphy, on the staff of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, called to say that the AEC had on display in the JCAE hearings room today a number of models of various missiles -- included was a model of the Soviet SS-9 along with the U.S. Spartan and Sprint. According to Murphy, Senator John Pastore (D., R.I.) queried the AEC representative, Glenn Wiltrot, as to whether he could borrow the model of the SS-9. Wiltrot responded that it was classified and in response to a further question from Pastore inferred that the model had been obtained from CIA. Murphy wished to know whether this model could be used by Senator Pastore in an open forum. After checking DD/S&T and Dr. Charles Reichardt of AEC, I advised Murphy that the model was not ours but had been made by AEC elements using information from a variety of sources including ourselves. I added, aside from any security aspects, it was my understanding that there were some technical inaccuracies in the model which were being corrected and that Senator Pastore might not wish to use it under the circumstances. Murphy agreed and said he would recommend that the Senator not use the model.

STATOTHR 2. [redacted] David Martin, on the staff of Senator Thomas Dodd (D., Conn.), called and asked if we had any information on [redacted] who according to Martin is an official in the [redacted]. Martin said that [redacted] has STATOTHR [redacted] corresponded with Senator Dodd in the past but has now asked for an opportunity to meet with him. Martin would like any information we might be able to provide the Senator on this individual. I told him I would check on this and be in touch with him.
